

Winter 2016 Newsletter

Connie and I, along with our staff, want to say HAPPY NEW YEAR to you and your families. We have just completed our 9th year in Asia and we are excited about what God is planning for 2016! We are sharing our year-in-review report, and highlighting some of the accomplishments that GCIM, RHEMA Hong Kong and RHEMA China experienced in 2015. We're so glad you've been a part of it with us!

Your friends and missionaries to Asia and Chinese speaking people...

Celebrating 2015-A Year in Review

- In May, we finished a wonderful school year with our first-ever graduation in Hong Kong. Our special guest was Rev. Craig Hagin. We graduated our first Level 1 class from RBTC Hong Kong and our sixth group of students from our RBTC China program—a total of 44 graduates.
- In September, RBTC Hong Kong launched its second year program with 19 returning students and our RBTC China group continued with 17 returning students. We also launched our new RHEMA Hong Kong (China) website.
- We re-edited five new titles of Kenneth E. Hagin's books – The Authority of the Believer, The Art of Prayer, How To Be Led by the Spirit of God, The Midas Touch and Seven Things You Should Know About Divine Healing.
- We finalized a working prototype of our RHEMA Chinese Online program.
- Amos Wong completed the video taping of three additional courses for our RHEMA Chinese Online program as well.
- We ministered in 14 churches from Alaska to California and from Colorado to New England.
- We traveled regularly to Mainland China to teach at our RBTC China location.
- We held our first pastors and leaders conference and RBTC Alumni meeting in NE China.
- We hosted our first church planting conference in Hong Kong in April as well as an international conference in May called "Experience His Presence".
- We impacted even more nations ministering three times in Singapore and teaching at RBTC's in Indonesia, East Malaysia and Greece.
- We began work on a new GCIM website that we anticipate should come online sometime in 2016.
- And of course, we have to mention yet again the joy we had to experience the birth of our 2nd grandson—Soren Francis Cowl. That was awesome!!

Celebrating What's to Come!

2015 had some wonderful milestones for us, but we are looking ahead to some exciting things in 2016, too. Consider these to be some of your prayer points for our ministry as we begin the new year. We look forward to giving you updates in the months to come!

2016 Planned Events

- Launch our RHEMA Bible Training College online program in the Chinese Language
- Investigate some potential new training campus locations.
- Host our first RHEMA China Pastors' Conference with a focus on training sessions for potential RBTC Chinese instructors.
- Launch our new GCIM webpage.
- Begin re-editing 4 to 5 more books by Kenneth E. Hagin.

Our Commitment to You

On another note – we plan to take 2016 to re-evaluate the work that we have been doing in China and with Chinese-speaking people; to make any necessary changes in how we do what we do, so that we can become more effective and impactful with the resources God has given to us.

We also plan to streamline how we do things and take a hard look at where we spend our finances, so that we can allocate the maximum amount of contributions toward specific projects that will enable us to reach more people with the Gospel.

In 2016, we plan to not necessarily work harder, but to work smarter in achieving the goals God has given to us, to spread this message and train pastors and leaders as quickly as we can.

We want you to know how much we appreciate your prayers and financial support as well as your faith in us and in what the Lord has called us to do. It is our prayer that 2016 will be a year of greater spiritual advancements, for you and your families and ministries.
