Our Commitment to You

2016 was a tremendous year in terms of ministry accomplishments, mainly because of your prayer and financial support. As we look back over this past year, we are thankful to the Lord for his faithfulness to continue to provide opportunities for us to expand the Gospel, not only in China and Asia, but also around the world.

Over this past year Connie and I were talking about slowing down our pace a little. However, during a time of prayer, the Lord spoke to us about picking up the pace and making ourselves available to do more around the world. After that time of prayer, things begin to happen very quickly, to the point that we have fully scheduled 2017.

We are not totally sure why we need to increase our ministry pace or why so many opportunities have opened to us. However, we do know that we are living in the last days and that we have to move forward with a new ministry focus. Part of that new focus is to help strengthen pastors and church leaders around the world.

As we start this New Year, we want you to know how much we love you and thank God for you. Connie and I are constantly amazed by the faithfulness and love of our partners and friends. Thank you for your love and commitment to our work! May 2017 be the beginning of a year of new opportunities and spiritual advancements for your and your family.
