

2019 Special Edition, Year-In-Review Newsletter

As I write this newsletter, Connie and I are flying from Greece back to the US. We have just completed an extended international trip that has taken us to four nations. We witnessed many salvations, people receiving the baptism with the Holy Spirit, instant healings, and powerful times of teaching and preaching ministry. This year has been remarkable in many ways. Besides our international focus, we spent a significant portion of our time traveling to many of our partner churches, sharing the future vision of GCIM.

We usually close our newsletter by thanking our friends and partners. I want to begin this newsletter by saying "THANK YOU!" to everyone who has prayed for us, encouraged us, and has sown financially into what God has called us to do. We continually thank God for such generous and faithful partners. We want you to know that you are making a difference in the lives of countless people.

At the end of every year, we share a brief highlight of what GCIM has accomplished. Below is a list of highlights from 2019 and a shortlist of upcoming ministry for 2020.

Fruitful Results in 2019— This past year was a great year of ministry and fruitfulness. We experienced an increase in people receiving Jesus for the first time. We also saw an increase of individuals receiving the baptism with the Holy Spirit and individuals receiving instant healing in their bodies.

Our ministry time in churches and pastor's conferences saw an increase of anointing and manifestations of the Holy Spirit. We believe that this increase is not only directly connected to what God has called us to do, but is also the result of your prayers.

We know that you are praying for us, and we greatly appreciate it. We can sense your prayers as we travel and minister, especially in countries that require us to be sensitive to how we communicate the Gospel. As we enter this new year, we covet your prayers even more. The Lord has spoken some specific assignments for us to accomplish, and we know that these assignments will not happen without your prayers. Thank you again for the supply of the Spirit that you are making through your partnership.

Things to Come— As we prepare for 2020, I want to share some things that God has been speaking to us about. For the past few years, Connie and I have sensed in our hearts that the Lord wants us to become more intentional with what He has called us to do.

Through times of waiting on God and in prayer, we have received more specific direction concerning our next phase of ministry. It is our desire to share this new direction with you in our next newsletter.

Please know that we are not changing our involvement in ministry. Instead, we sense that we must become more intentional in how we do what we do. This new ministry focus means we will add some new ministry outreaches that will help us accurately follow what God is saying to our hearts.

We want to thank you for your incredible love support and prayers through the many transitions we have experienced over the past 12 years. You have been amazing, and we want you to know that. We also continuously pray for you to experience God's goodness and blessings in your lives. We love you, and trust that you and your families have a blessed Christmas and holiday season!
