2021 Summer Update Media Making a Difference

An important part of our ministry focus is to continue providing materials and teaching for Chinese-speaking people groups. Since 2007, we have worked to develop reading materials that are translated accurately.

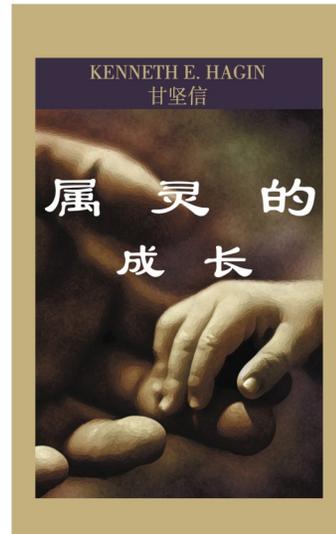

The Lord has brought together an outstanding team of translators who are passionate about providing quality Word of Faith materials for Chinese speakers. Our translators are extremely particular in maintaining the original thought of the author, as well as maintaining scriptural integrity.

Over these recent years, we have worked diligently to make these materials available free of charge to Chinese speakers worldwide. When our website for this purpose, flpchinese.com, was made public, we took a giant step toward achieving that goal.

We continue to have consistent downloads from the site every month and we know that each one represents many more lives as the materials are passed on to be shared with others.

We currently have 15 titles available and one mp3 audio that contains healing scriptures with background music. Our latest release is yet another book written by Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin, "Growing Up Spiritually." Our goal is to translate between 20 to 30 titles covering a wide range of spiritual issues that will encourage and equip Chinese Christians and Church leaders to grow in their walk with the Lord.

More Resources for YOU!

For English speakers, GCIM is continuing to develop our catalog of audio and video teaching by Rev. Gary Crowl, as well. The resources are available, free of charge, at our website: gcinternational.org. Video teaching can also be accessed directly on Vimeo at vimeo.com/gcim.

One of the available video resources is a three-part teaching series on the subject of "Storm Proofing Your Life." In this video series, Rev. Crowl discusses the ongoing situation regarding the global pandemic – why this is happening and what Christians can do to spiritually strengthen themselves to overcome these challenges.

Originally released last year, it is still a timely Word to encourage yourself, and others, too. Our purpose in this teaching is not to discuss the natural causes of this virus. Instead, Rev. Crowl focuses on a solid biblical and spiritual response to the issue. As you listen, our prayer is that you will receive His divine insights as to how you can storm proof your life. Download the message and pass it on!

Teaching & Training Through Video Conferencing Technology

Recently, we took part in teaching a class, via Zoom, in RHEMA Bible Training College, Chandigarh, India. We continue to receive invitations for such Zoom meetings from a variety of locations around the world. In this time of limited travel, we are grateful for this digital means of continuing to minister God's Word to His people.

RBTC Chandigarh held their classes in an in-person format so it was more encouraging for us to be able to see a classroom full of eager students. An added blessing was the fact that we had two students from Pakistan attending the

A Personal Word from the Crowl's...

Connie and I are extremely grateful for your partnering with us to reach people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The greatest things we can do in this life are things that produce eternal results. Every time we teach God's Word, pray for others or witness to others, we are producing eternal results. Your faithfulness in giving and praying for us personally and for the work God has called us to has been a great inspiration and encouragement. Thank you, as always, for your love and generosity.

sessions via Zoom. Due to your generous giving, GCIM underwrote the entire project that made this possible, including the purchase of various internet devices, wiring, and a TV monitor.

Even though we were not able to travel and be physically present with this group, we were encouraged by the response from the students in India, as well as the opportunity to reach into the nation of Pakistan.

God's Word continues to go forth through a variety of mediums, from live teaching and resources to books and online conferences. We are committed to doing everything we can to bring the message of faith and the Holy Spirit to a world in desperate need of experiencing the power of God.
