

2022 Spring Update

International Travels Begin Again!

We are excited to announce that GCIM will be resuming our international travels! We are scheduled to be in Greece during the month of May. We will be working directly with Spyros Voulgaris, the Director of RHEMA Greece, and providing teaching and training sessions for students and church leaders. Visit their website at www.logoschurch.gr/en/. Please keep us in your prayers as we travel and prepare to minister to many individuals on this trip. In addition, we have other international trips in the process of being confirmed. As details of those trips are finalized, we will continue to update you through various methods of communication. Please continue to check out our website at www.gcinternational.org for ministry updates and new resources.

It's official! We also invite you to "like" our new Facebook page! It's another connecting point as we partner together for His Kingdom! Search for Gary Crowl International Ministries.

An Amazing Response From China For FLP Chinese

In 2017, GCIM redirected its Chinese ministry focus to developing free Christian resources. Since that time, we have continued to look for ways to provide teaching materials in a format that is easily accessible to Chinese-speakers living anywhere in the world.

With that in mind, GCIM began experimenting with an online platform to provide downloadable book .pdfs, .mp3 audio files, and .mp4 video files. Since the inception of FLPChinese.com, GCIM and our partners have translated twenty-two books from four different authors.

Our translation team is comprised of a Chinese national living in China who has a background in publications, and Wayne Li, our Stateside GCIM office translator who has experience in Chinese literature and is also a graduate of RBTC USA. Both have dedicated their time and efforts to provide highly accurate translations for these faith-building materials.

Once the site was operational, we began tracking the number of downloads people were accessing. From April 2021 to February 2022, we recorded 2,750 downloads. In March 2022, however, we saw a significant increase in those numbers with a monthly total of 37,231 downloads, bringing our total number of downloads for the past year to approximately 40,000! Remember, these download numbers do not reflect the number of times individuals pass these materials on to their friends and families. We are tremendously excited about the site's potential toward a growing impact in China.

侧耳倾听 第一部分 Incline Thine Ear

作为一名信徒，你可以通过遵守他的指示，“侧耳听”他的话，来行在医治、供应和所有神的祝福之中。这段视频展示了甘坚信牧师关于需要不断以神的话语来喂养你信心的永恒见解。

As a believer, you can walk in healing, provision, and all of God's blessings by obeying His instructions to "incline thine ear" to His Word. This video features timeless insights from Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin on the need to feed your faith continually on God's Word.

As many of you know, China has been making news headlines for various issues the past couple of years. We believe that these materials will make a significant impact within churches and among the leaders of those churches. Even more exciting, in April 2022, GCIM uploaded our very first video teaching from Kenneth E. Hagin that uses Chinese language voice-overs. Our goal is to continue uploading a new video resource each month for the next year that will cover a range of the most important topics necessary to strengthen the faith of believers. More book translations are being prepared for future release as well.

Again, these resources will be made available free of charge. We can do that because we have tremendous partners who continue to support this project! We want to thank everyone who has given. Only eternity will tell the story of how many lives have ultimately been changed!

A Personal Word from the Crowl's...

With everything taking place in the world today, it is understandable why many Christians are perplexed and living with fear and uncertainty. It is also understandable why there has been increased interest in end-times events. Whenever the world begins to experience catastrophic crises, many people start looking for the Lord's return.

In the first chapter of Acts, Jesus addresses the question of where our focus ought to be about the time we are living in. In Acts 1:6, the disciples asked Jesus this question: "...Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" The disciples were interested in the same things that most Christians are interested in today who may be asking, "Jesus, when will you set up your kingdom and rule and reign on this earth?" This, of course, will become a reality at some point.

Notice Jesus' response in Acts 1:7. "And He said unto them, 'It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in His own power.'" Jesus did not say that there was to be no restoration of the kingdom to Israel; He simply said that speculation about the time and date of this restoration was not a priority for the disciples.

In the next verse, Acts 1:8, Jesus returns to what He wanted the disciples to hear: an emphasis on receiving the power of the Holy Spirit. For what purpose? For the purpose of evangelism. For the purpose of spreading the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

I believe we are living in the last days. However, I also believe that we still have work to do. That work includes what Jesus said in Matthew 24:14, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." This is still the message for the church today! God the Father is waiting for a harvest. The harvest is God's number one priority. The harvest is the closest thing to the heart of our Heavenly Father.

We still have work to do! There are so many unique opportunities that are before us. We have the most incredible message to share. We have received the most extraordinary power to equip us for the mission. It is appropriate to keep the return of the Lord fresh on our minds. It is equally appropriate to use that promise as the primary motivation to reach the world with the Gospel!

Let me encourage you to look for opportunities to share the Gospel with your friends, family, and coworkers. Ask the Lord what you can do to be a part of gathering in the harvest in these last days. We live in one of the most remarkable periods of the history of the world. Never before have we had the opportunities and the technology we do now to reach people with the Gospel. Let's work together to accomplish the plan and the will of our Heavenly Father!

Connie and I and all of us at GCIM thank you for your faithful prayers and financial support. We are blessed to have such wonderful friends and partners in the ministry. Together we are changing people's lives and expanding the Kingdom of God!
