Since 1979, Gary and Connie Crowl have focused their calling on establishing Bible schools, pioneering churches, and training church workers and leaders. Gary and Connie have pioneered churches in the U.S., Haiti, and Thailand, and established Bible schools in Haiti, Thailand, Singapore, China, and Hong Kong. Gary has also served as a pastor, associate pastor, the Dean of a Bible College, and the director of an international network of Bible training programs and missionaries.

Besides living in various nations of Southeast Asia, the Crowls lived in China for over ten years. They continue to be actively involved in equipping Chinese pastors and Christian leaders, publishing faith-building materials, and developing online training recourses for Chinese speakers worldwide.

The Crowls continue to travel internationally, holding pastors' conferences and teaching in churches and Bible schools. The Crowls' passion for training church leaders has taken them to over thirty nations worldwide.

Gary and Connie are graduates of RHEMA Bible Training College. Gary is also a graduate of Southwestern Assemblies of God University. Connie is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College.
