What's in Store for 2024?

During a time of prayer in 2022, I kept hearing these words on the inside: Seven Years of Harvest. The more I prayed and meditated on those words, I became convinced that God was leading us to focus our time, energy, and resources for the next seven years to do our part in helping reap the harvest, especially in nations that have not experienced a sustained move of God.

Over the last two decades, we have founded Bible schools and churches across Southeast Asia. Starting with our first venture in Thailand in 1999, we have been honored to establish: a church and Bible school in Bangkok, a Bible school in Singapore, and multiple Bible schools throughout China. We have helped individuals start Bible Schools in Indonesia, Greece, and Albania, as well.

The individuals who have assumed all these works have taken the seeds we planted and produced an abundant harvest in many different nations. We are grateful for the opportunity to plant ministries and to see these ministries grow and flourish, producing fruit that remains.

GCIM will continue our original mission of training and shaping leaders. We will continue to hold pastor training workshops, develop faith-building materials translated into targeted language groups, and to work with other international leaders to open new countries for the Gospel.

In 2023, GCIM developed a partnership with a new outreach program called Kingdom Building International. The main objective of this program is to execute a seven-year harvest plan in nations that are ready for it. We will provide additional information about this program in the upcoming year. For now, pray for kingdombuilding.us!

Exciting FLP Chinese Expansions!

2023 was a big year for our Chinese translation focus. We were able to add four new Faith Library Publications to our Chinese Resource website: flpchinese.com. New titles include: Seven Steps to Judging Prophecy (book), Seven Vital Steps to Receiving the Holy Spirit (book), The Precious Blood of Jesus (video), and Understanding the Name of Jesus (video). We had over 10,000 downloads from the site in 2023, with a total download count of 96,021 by the end of the year!

Our newest FLP Chinese resource, audiobooks, will now expand our reach to Chinese speakers even further! The response of our partners in supporting this special project was amazing. We already have five titles available in this format: The New Birth, The Bible Way to Receive the Holy Spirit, Love Never Fails, The Threefold Nature of Man, and The Believer's Authority.

Thanks to the generosity of our partners, we also have nine other titles already fully-funded and in the production cue for 2024! These resources will be available both at the flpchinese.com website as well as the FLP Chinese YouTube channel: www.youtube.com/flpchineseconnethehagin
